

FICTIONAL SAMPLE DOCUMENT — created for software testing. All productions, venues, organizations and people named below are invented.

EXHIBIT B — PRODUCTION CREDITS, BILLING AND STANDING OF THE PRESENTING ORGANIZATIONS

Beneficiary: Mireille Sato-Adeyemi (p/k/a MIRA SATO)

Petitioner: Kestrel Line Artists, LLC

Prepared: January 14, 2025

This exhibit sets out, for each production relied upon: the beneficiary's role, the billing she received in the printed programme or credit block, the source document at Tab, and the standing of the presenting organization or event.

B-1. TIDEWATER REQUIEM — OSTRANDER CONTEMPORARY OPERA (2023–2024)

Role. Composer and sound designer; conducted the electronics from the pit for all 19 performances of the premiere run.

Billing (Tab B-1a, programme cover and title page, premiere run, 14 September 2023, Verity Hall, Rockvale, Illinois). The programme title page reads:

OSTRANDER CONTEMPORARY OPERA presents

TIDEWATER REQUIEM

Music and sound design by MIRA SATO

Libretto by Halvard Ingebrigtsen-Poole

Directed by Cordelia Nwachukwu-Barrie

Ms. Sato-Adeyemi's name appears above the title-page fold and immediately below the work's title, in the same type size as the director and librettist. The poster and lobby card (Tab B-1b) carry the same three names and no others.

Standing of the presenting organization (Tab B-1c, company profile and season archive). Ostrander Contemporary Opera was founded in 1961, presents a five-production season each year at Verity Hall in Rockvale, Illinois, and has toured co-productions to eleven cities in four countries since 2004. Three of its productions have been recorded and broadcast by Meridian Public Broadcasting.

Standing of the production itself. Tidewater Requiem was reviewed in The Ardenmoor Review and the Cascadia Culture Ledger (Exhibit C, rows C-1 and C-4), and its score received the 2023 Thornfield Prize (Exhibit A-1). The production was revived in the company's 2024–25 season and is scheduled for a second revival in 2027 (Exhibit F, row F-6).

Contract confirming the role. Exhibit E-1, clause 2, engages Ms. Sato-Adeyemi as "Composer and Sound Designer, a principal creative role, entitled to title-page billing in all programme and publicity material."

B-2. SALT TIDE VARIATIONS — NORDLYS ELEKTRONIKA FESTIVAL, MAIN STAGE (2022)

Role. Solo performer and composer; a 65-minute continuous work performed alone on the Main Stage.

Billing (Tab B-2a, festival programme, pages 4 and 17, Vestervik, Denmark, 19 August 2022). Listed as the closing Main Stage artist of the 2022 edition. The programme grid shows the beneficiary in the 21:30 Main Stage slot, the final slot of the festival, presented under her name alone.

Standing of the event (Tab B-2b, festival history sheet). Nordlys Elektronika Festival has run annually in Vestervik since 1997, programmes three stages over four days, and its Main Stage programme in 2022 comprised 38 artists from 19 countries. The festival's Golden Compass Award for the 2022 edition was conferred on Ms. Sato-Adeyemi for this performance (Exhibit A-2).

Independent notice of the performance. Reviewed by Hollowdrum and reported by Sonics Quarterly (Exhibit C, rows C-2 and C-5).

B-3. NINE ROOMS FACING NORTH — BLUE LANTERN DANCE COMPANY (2021, REVIVED 2024)

Role. Composer of the original score and live electronics operator for the premiere season.

Billing (Tab B-3a, programme credit block, premiere 2 October 2021, Ardenmoor Center for the Performing Arts). The credit block reads, in order: choreography — Ilinca Petrescu-Vance; original score and live electronics — Mira Sato; lighting — Ferris Odumbe-Kaltenbach; costumes — Wren Baptiste-Ferreira. Ms. Sato-Adeyemi is second-billed among the creative team and is one of two names on the production's poster (Tab B-3b).

Standing of the presenting organization (Tab B-3c). Blue Lantern Dance Company was founded in 1978, maintains a company of 16 dancers, presents a home season in Rockvale and undertakes a national tour in alternate years. Its 2024–2025 national tour visits seven cities (Exhibit F, row F-3).

Contract confirming the role. Exhibit E-3, schedule 1, describes the engagement as "principal creative contributor — original score" with a named credit obligation.

B-4. THE LONG SHALLOW — MARROW & MOTH THEATRE COLLECTIVE (2020)

Role. Sound designer.

Billing (Tab B-4a). Listed in the production's general credits page among eleven creative and technical contributors. The petitioner does not rely on this credit as a lead or starring role; it is included for completeness of the work history.

SUMMARY

| Ref | Production / event | Year | Role | Billing evidence | Presenter standing evidence |

|---|---|---|---|---|---|

| B-1 | Tidewater Requiem | 2023–24 | Composer, sound designer | Programme title page, poster, lobby card (Tabs B-1a, B-1b) | Company profile, 1961 founding, season and touring archive (Tab B-1c) |

| B-2 | Salt Tide Variations | 2022 | Solo performer, composer | Festival programme, closing Main Stage slot (Tab B-2a) | Festival history sheet, 1997 founding, 38 artists / 19 countries (Tab B-2b) |

| B-3 | Nine Rooms Facing North | 2021, 2024 | Composer, live electronics | Credit block, poster (Tabs B-3a, B-3b) | Company profile, 1978 founding, touring record (Tab B-3c) |

| B-4 | The Long Shallow | 2020 | Sound designer | General credits page (Tab B-4a) | Not relied upon |

This is a fictional sample document created for software testing.